The Total Year

The summer of 1977 went too fast for many students. The new school year began on September 6. Many students arrived as early as 7:30 to find their way around the new school. Many were confused during the week because final touches were still being put on the new school.

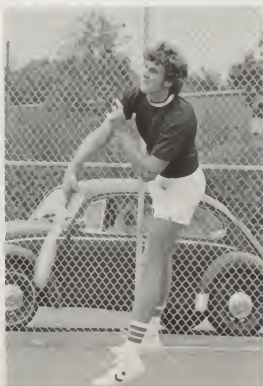

Within the first month, students finally settled down to classes and started to join clubs. Freshmen were eager to learn of the high school activities, so many joined inter-school activities.

Sophomores and Juniors started back into their routine. Seniors were filled with the excitement of their final year and being able to order their announcements.

Entering into the second semester, many students were used to the school routine. After the changing of class schedules, students fell into the routine for the coming year.

Eagle Star Wars

Homecoming week was filled with excitement and enthusiasm. The windows of local businesses were painted in a variety of colors. Spirit was everywhere as the students scrambled to make their float the best. The theme was Star Wars and the Juniors captured the first prize. Closely behind were the Seniors with their spaceship. There was a frantic effort for all classes to finish their hall decorations, with the Juniors winning first place. The fun days were Hat Day, T-Shirt Day, Inside-Out Day, and Spirit Day. The Seniors triumphed at the Powder Puff Game which is always an enjoyable event. Khris Molchan was crowned the Powder Puff King.

On Friday there was a noisy pep session with the Seniors winning the spirit trophy. After the parade, everyone watched as the Eagles massacred the Knox Redskins. Despite a heavy rainfall, the nominees for Homecoming Queen looked beautiful. The spectators nervously waited the announcement of Homecoming Queen. There were shrieks of joy as Sandy Kincheloe was crowned by Tammy Cherry, 1976 Queen. After the game everyone "boogied" at the sockhop. The formal dance on Saturday night concluded Homecoming activities. It was a special evening for everyone. Homecoming 1977, the year of spirit and enthusiasm, will be long remembered.

77-78 Junior Miss

The 1977 Junior Miss Pageant was an exciting time for all girls who entered the competition. There were seven weeks of practice for the girls' physical fitness routines. At first there were aching muscles but also many hours of fun. The girls were treated to a banquet at the Ramada Inn where they were interviewed by the judges.

At last the final two nights of the pageant arrived. The girls made a striking appearance in their evening gowns. The contestants' scores were based on talent, poise and appearance, scholastic averages, physical fitness and judges' interviews.

The audience seemed to enjoy the various talents presented. Excitement mounted as people mentally made their choice. It was a thrilling moment as Karen Kurzdorfer accepted the crown of Junior Miss 1977-78 from Michelle Scheuer, 1976-77 Junior Miss. Runners up were: First-Judy Bobrowski, Second-Jenny Gibson and Third-Carol Evans.

Sixty dazzling couples attended the event. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Tina Lynch as Sweetheart Queen. Music was provided by Zezara and photographs were taken by Lewis Color Studios of Portage. Those who attended had a pleasant evening surrounded by good music, lovely decorations, and couples dressed in their best.

Prom 1978 — Tropical Sunset

At 8:00 on May 13, sixty-five couples walked into the "Tropical Sunset" of the 1978 Prom. A sparkling pond holding live goldfish could be viewed from the orchid festooned bridge which led the way to the dance floor. The music of Stonewood Fox was both romantic and rock. Couples danced among tropical birds, a thatched hut, pineapples and netting. A mural of a tropical sunset was the background for many a picture as was the pond and bridge in the foyer. Professional pictures were taken by Spasoff Studio of Gary, In. The 1978 prom, sponsored by the class of 1979, was a tremendous success.

Post prom was held at Jonynas Hall in Chesterton. Delicious food and the music of Freeway made it the culmination of a beautiful evening. The following day couples finished their weekend off with visits to Great America, Turkey Run and Old Chicago.

Indianapolis Ballet Theatre Presents:

Two performances by the Indianapolis Ballet Theatre on March 5 and 6 were cultural highlights of the year. A medley of dances were presented at a matinee on Sunday. Special children's dances on Monday were provided for the school city's elementary children who showed their pleasure through sparkling eyes and applause for the performers.

Brought to the high school by the School Board and sponsored by the Edisonian, those who saw the performances were impressed. The Indianapolis Ballet Theatre brought another art form to Edison for the first time. Future events such as the ballet would add to the school's opportunities.

Highlights of the season included the opening and use of the new football field and the 1977 Homecoming game.

The Homecoming game was played against Knox, who at the time, was ranked fourth in State. Everyone who sat through the pouring rain was rewarded by the Eagles spectacular comeback in the second half where they won 21-20.

The final game of the season against Winamac was tense as the game went into three overtimes.

Girls Gymnastics hopefuls begin practice early in the year to prepare for their various performances in floor exercises, vault, balance beam, and uneven parallel bars. Limbering up exercises were important to help avoid pulled muscles and sprains. Coach Natalie Kolsci, in her first year coaching at Edison H.S., had ballet experience and aided the girls in the graceful movements of their self-styled routines. Though the team had several injured members thought the year, gymnasts gained experience in performance. With all the experience gained this 1977-1978 season, the Eagles will hopefully have a highly successful season in 1978-1979. Several of the gymnasts will be returning for second and their seasons.

Class Of '78'

As Freshmen coming to Edison the four years ahead seemed a long time. As Seniors, the Class of '78 realized the time had flown by all too fast, leaving them with many memories of their high school years.

As Freshmen, they purchased their class jerseys and saw the black and gold class flag hung in the gym.

As Sophomores, their float, "Declaration of Eaglependence", went along with the Bicentennial. They also started a new tradition by being the first class to receive their class rings as Sophomores.

Their Junior year float "Cougars Get No Free Rides on Our Screaming Eagle", made them very proud by winning first place. The class shared the Homecoming Spirit Trophy with the Seniors. The girls in the class placed second in the powder puff games also. With the theme "Over The Rainbow" the long awaited prom was held on May 14.

All too soon, their Senior year arrived. Classes were held in the new addition and they had to become familiar with it as did other students and teachers.

Before they knew it, Homecoming was upon them. Their float "Eagles Are Bound For Stardom" disappointed many by not taking first place, but the class still had cause to be happy when they won the Spirit Trophy and the girls won the powder puff championship.

As the Senior year came to a close, deserving class members were honored at Awards Day ceremonies. Graduation came as the culmination to twelve years of school.

The capable officers for the class of 1980 were President Gina Spears, Vice-President Cindy Gerlich, Secretary Margaret Cooper, Treasurer Jaymi Williams, Girls Representative Pat Stahl, and Boys Representative Pete Morilds.

The class worked many long hours on their float, "When the Eagles Land Knox will be Seeing Stars," for Homecoming.

The class took an active part in the Student Council canned food drive and were proud to be awarded "The Spirit of Christmas" trophy for bringing in the most cans.

Class rings came in on February 17. The class has worked hard to raise money through car washes, dances, and by selling fruit cakes for future projects.

Freshmen Learn

Edison High School's graduating Class of 1981 began their Freshman year unaware of what was ahead of them. Class officers for the year were President David Yanez, Vice President Tom Mosley, Secretary Niki Kopanakis, Girls' Representative Andrea Tokash and Boys' Representative John Ramos. The class discovered the time and effort needed for float building and hall decorating.

The class, in their first fundraising attempt, held a dance on December 16th. They also ordered their class t-shirts and class flag, both in their class colors of green and white. The class of 1981 will return as Sophomores prepared for what lies ahead.

From The Editors:

We, as Editors, have tried to capture the year in pictures as we thought you would remember it throughout the years. It was difficult, for so many photographs were taken from our darkroom. We would like to say to those who took them that we hope you enjoyed them.

To our photographers, we would like to ask the question, "What Happened?" It never seemed to fail that the pictures were blurred or within five minutes the negatives were scratched. We thank Kim Barth for the times he stepped in to give us a helping hand.

We would like to say "Thanks" for those staff members who helped throughout the year and to those who just wanted their photograph in the book. A special thanks to Mrs. Basile who helped build the yearbook back up to where it was and also for keeping her cool with the financial conditions of the yearbook.

To Mrs. Pat Lindeman, company yearbook advisor, thank you for speaking to the company to get an extended deadline for our debt on the 76' book and also for having patience with us at the beginning of the year.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Webdell and Mr. Fritz for their cooperation.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the nutritional status of the world's population. The United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) has been instrumental in the development of the concept of 'nutritional security' (WFP 1992). Nutritional security is defined as 'the availability of food and the ability of people to obtain it' (WFP 1992). It is a concept that encompasses both food security and food access. Food security is the availability of food in a given area, while food access is the ability of people to obtain that food. Nutritional security is the combination of these two factors.
